

WISCONSIN CLUB HOCKEY

2009-2010 SEASON RECAP

OVERVIEW

The 2009-2010 season was another giant step forward in the team's young history. Coming off a successful first year of existence, the team was poised to build on the positives. The team joined the Western Collegiate Club Hockey Association in search of a more competitive and balanced schedule. After early sweeps at the hands of St. Thomas and Minnesota, the team bounced back by sweeping the remaining conference games. At the conference tournament, the team made the finals, avenging the early season sweep against Minnesota before falling to St. Cloud State in the finals. Aside from a third place finish in the WCCHA regular season and second place at the conference tournament, UWCH experienced non-conference success as well. Over the second weekend of the season, the team won the inaugural Wisconsin State Club Invitational Championship with victories over St. Norbert College, Marquette University, and UW-Milwaukee. The team also achieved a split with regional participant Illinois State University. These victories led the team to receive votes during the final five ranking periods, putting the region on notice that the team will be a force to be reckoned with in upcoming years. The team had seven players individually honored for their conference play, and had six upperclassmen eligible for ACHA Academic All-American Awards. The successes of the 2009-2010 have set the stage for further achievement in the years to come.
